Ste. Genevieve was visited by two severe electrical storms this week. The first was unceremonious Tuesday about noon and sent forth the flashiest, noisiest and most rapid doped in aerial features we have ever witnessed. The lightning flashes were put on in moving picture show style and the peals of thunder resembled the noise of a rapid fire gun in action. Wednesday morning between 12:30 and 2 o'clock the same dose was administered by the elements. Both storms were accompanied by heavy rains, but very little wind. The lightning struck several places in the vicinity doing little damage.

A large crowd of young folks were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leatt in North Ste. Genevieve Wednesday of this week. The function was given in honor of Miss Adele Boyce's birthday, and as intended, was a complete surprise to the young lady. The party had assembled before Miss Boyce, who was escorted by Russel Rehm, had arrived, and all were at the front door to greet the guest of honor. Tables had been arranged for euchre and several hours were interestingly spent in this diversion. During the game lemonade was served and after the game and the prizes had been awarded ice cream was served the guests. The evening was unanimously declared a most enjoyable one.

It was not unusual for Edward Hogenmiller, operator at the I. S. depot in this city, to board the excursion train Sunday morning for Prairie du Rocher in quest of a good time, many other people did likewise. Nor was it so terribly unusual for Ed to remain over night, for others did likewise. But the unusual occurred Monday when Edward with one of P. D. R.'s fair maidens, a Miss Emma Duolos, boarded an Iron M. train for Chester and upon their arrival were arrested. This unusual occurrence is due to the fact that at that time of the year there happened to be a certain young couple chasing around this corner of the globe in quest of a marriage license who were much sought after by reporters, officers and relatives, and it was quite natural for the authorities on seeing Ed and the fair one get off the train to investigate. The couple was brought back to Prairie du Rocher for identification and released. Ed was on the I. S. train Tuesday but didn't stop. Guess he thinks the officers are still chasing him.

The annual excursion of the "Old Rivals" to Prairie du Rocher occurred last Sunday and was enjoyed by about two hundred of our citizens. The day was ideal with just about the right temperature to properly enthuse the "Joy for Everybody" slogan. The accommodations were perfect and the trip to and from Prairie du Rocher on the I. S. train was made without the least hitch. The reception accorded the visitors far exceeded in hospitality the former visits which were thought by our citizens to be unsurpassable. The Ste. Genevieve Brass Band with the Prairie du Rocher band led the visitors from the depot to the Main street, where, after the customary ceremonies of reception, the crowd disbanded to pursue their different means of enjoyment. There was joy for everybody and then some, and if there was any one who didn't extract three times their portion of joy, we don't know, for they didn't have nerve enough to spring it on our streets. The ball game, or that is a part of it was pulled off, but the least said is soonest mended, the better. The P. D. R. boys won by a large margin. The excursion was promoted and carried through by "Pat" Boverie and "Dutch" Vost, in the Missouri Department and Tom and Harry Conner and Dick Murry in the Illinois department or the "Joy for Everybody" adherents. P. D. R. will be here Sept. 8.

We still have a good line of Shoes left. Prices lower than ever. Rozier's Cash Store.
